

ROLE PROFILE

Position Title: Senior Engineer Data	Reporting to: Manager IPTV & VAS Planning & Delivery
Business Unit: Technology
Division: Active & Core	Department: Active & Core - Planning & Delivery

A. ROLE AND CONTEXT

Purpose: This role is responsible for designing, delivering and providing the plan of VAS network evolution of Value Added Service platforms such as, but not limited to, messaging (Voicemail & SMS), Mobile data products and other Third Party applications and services.	Functional Context: The Technology Unit within Ooredoo is the backbone of the organization providing all technology services which enable Ooredoo to deliver its services to its customers across all technology platforms, 24/7/365. In other words, it's responsible for the management of all Ooredoo networks, technology infrastructure/ platforms and processes to achieve fast time-to-market, high operational efficiency, and support product/ service innovation, and ultimately drive the financial performance of Ooredoo.
--	--

B. ROLE ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Defines procedures for efficient Execution of prompt network capacity provisioning for all the VAS network elements, features, protocols. - Identifies and maintains network modelling and traffic analysis tools for proper traffic trending and analysis within the VAS environment Review and approve documentations and reports within the VAS environment e.g. feasibility studies, functional and technical specifications for new products. - Provides Functional and Technical Specification documents for new products and services. - Keeps track of network evolution strategy documents for short, medium and long term optimal and efficient value-added services. - Co-ordinates with vendors on new market releases and technology upgrade path to ensure quick deployment of new and innovative products/services. - Develops strategies to ensure optimum capacity planning for Call attempts and signalling traffic utilisation across VAS nodes. - Monitors Ooredoo's VAS network performance is in line with defined KPA/KPI's. - Maintains awareness of the latest technological and industry developments and act as subject matter expert regarding VAS network design and capacity planning. - Provides the feasibility study of new products and services utilizing existing service layer features cutting across different functional systems e.g. - IMS, SMS etc. - Participates in the selection of suitable technologies and negotiate/manage contracts with suppliers accordingly. - Develops processes and procedures to manage the environment. - Participates in the selection & selection of suitable technologies.
--

C. SCOPE AND INTERACTIONS

Direct Revenue Responsibility: No Direct Budget Responsibility: No Direct People Management Responsibility: No	Primary Interactions (Internal/External)
	Internal Relationships: Cross Functional	External Relationships: Business Partners Customers

- Technological readiness for new products/services.
- All platforms up to date and not reaching EOL.
- Actual spend versus budgeted CAPEX.
- Adequate dimensioning and utilisation

Minimum Experience, Essential Knowledge & Skills

Minimum Entry Qualifications

Preferred Certifications / Other Qualifications

Any Relevant Certification

Senior Engineer Data-3077